G. W. U. BENEFIT AT THE BELASCO

Tickets On Sale for "Lucia di Lammermoor."

The Belasco Theatre on Tuesday May 13, 1919, will be made gay by the students of G. W. U., the Alumni, and the friends of the University. They will hear Mme. Mario sing the title role in Lucia di Lammermoor. This opera will be given to raise funds for G. W. U. Hospital. Tickets will be on sale at the box office of the Belasco Theatre, May 5, 10 a. m.

The G. W. U. Hospital is at 1339 H street northwest next to the Medical School and Dental College. The 120 beds in the hospital are maintained by contributions from friends and money paid by patients. The endowment is small and expenses are high. The money derived from this opera will help.

The Washington public will have the opportunity to hear one of the most famous operas and the G. W. U. Hospital will use the money in much needed equipment. The hospital is doing a splendid work and the students of G. W. U. are going to do their part in supporting it.

Two boxes have been sold; one to President Collier and the other to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, former head of the D. A. R.

The officers of the board of lady managers of the University Hospital who are preparing for this benefit are Mrs. Douglas Pugham Birnie, president; Mrs. Charles W. Richardson and Mrs. Milford S. Thompson, vice presidents; Miss Ruth P. Lerner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Samuel E. Lewis, treasurer; Mrs. Wm. F. Norris, recording secretary; Mrs. Wallace McK. Stowell, assistant treasurer.

MRS. PAYNE SPEAKS ON RED CROSS WORK IN SIBERIA

Aid Given to Allied Troops and Refugees

How the American Red Cross came to the aid of the many nationalities in Siberia was told by Mrs. T. Payne, of Yokohama, Japan, head of the Woman's auxiliaries of the American Red Cross in the far east in an address at the Chapel Exercises at George Washington University held in the assembly hall of Arts and Sciences 2023 G. Street N. W. Mrs. Payne, of the University and who has lived in Japan twenty years has recently completed a tour of inspection of the chapters under her jurisdiction in Japan, China, Vladivostok, and Eastern Siberia.

In the past nine months she said the Red Cross had cared for Czech Slovaks, who were on their way towards the western front.

The British soldiers who were gassed and wounded on the Mesopotamia were taken care of and sent to Hong Kong for light duty and recuperation. Besides these it cared for French forces operating around Vladivostok.

But she announced the work done was not wholly along military lines in fact "to tell of the work done among civilian refugees would take hours". Among those benefited in this way there were Russians, Jews,

DAVID JAYNE HILL DISCUSSES LEAGUE

Former Ambassador to Germany Says League of Nations Is Not In Accord With the Constitution.

The two lectures delivered by Hon. David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany last Monday and Tuesday under the auspices of the University were well attended both by students of the University and friends. From 4 o'clock on groups of students were leaving the University headed for the Memorial Continental Hall where the lectures were given. Political science and classes in economics attended the lectures in a body. Shortly after 4 o'clock the University was deserted except for the librarians who reluctantly remained at their desks.

At 4:15 students began to arrive at the hall where reserved seats were being held for them. One entire side section of the large hall was reserved for students. Cards of admission which were obtainable at the offices of the University admitted two persons to reserved seats until 4:30. At that hour every reserved seat was taken and the doors were then opened to the public. Many people had been waiting for over an hour to gain admission and at 4:45 the time set for the lecture every seat in the hall was taken and the card "standing room only" was put out.

Army and Navy circles, diplomatic circles, members of the Supreme Court, members of Congress and their wives and many other prominent people were present.

On Monday, Dr. Hill spoke on the "Corporate Character of the League of Nations." In conclusion he said, "Imperialism is imperialism, whether it be joint or single; and it is not a business that tends toward democracy or toward justice. Even in its purity and at its best state it is a dangerous enterprise for a free people to engage in, and it is more dangerous than ever when innocence and good intention become the partners of seasoned experience in a game for power."

Tuesday, Dr. Hill lectured on "The Treaty-Making Power Under the Constitution of the United States." It is for the people of the United States to consider whether such an enterprise (proposed League of Nations) as this is one of the purposes for which they entered into the war; and it is certainly a proper question to be answered by the constitutionality authorized treaty-making power, whether or not it is an enterprise to which the United States has the constitutional right to pledge the efforts the resources and the lives of future generations of its citizens.

My answer would be that such a right has not been accorded by the Constitution of the United States, and is not in harmony with his intentions." This was the conclusion reached by Dr. Hill Tuesday.

The date of publication of The Hatchet has been changed from Monday to Tuesday. From now on you will get your Hatchet in the Tuesday morning mail.

NEW SUMMER LAW COURSES

Preparatory and Advanced Subjects Offered.

Here's an opportunity for present and prospective members of the Law School to lighten the work of the regular session by taking courses in the coming summer session. The lectures will begin Monday, June 23, and close Saturday, August 2. Examinations will be held August 4, 5, and 6. In addition to supplementing the work of the regular school year, it enables students to shorten the period of study for a degree. Subjects have been selected to accord proper work both to students beginning the study of law and for advanced students. All the subjects selected will be conducted by regular members of the faculty and the character of instruction will be the same as that of the regular session.

The following courses are offered:

First Year Subjects:

Personal Property: One semester credits. Tuesday to Friday, inclusive, 7:50 to 8:40 a. m. Mr. Van Vleck.

Principles of Law: Two semester credits. Tuesday to Friday, inclusive, 5:10 to 6:50 p. m. Mr. McFall.

Domestic relations: One semester credits. Tuesday and Thursday, 5:10 to 6:50 p. m. Friday 6:00 to 7:00 p. m. Mr. Van Vleck.

Insurance: Two semester credits. Tuesday and Thursday, 5:10 to 6:50 p. m. Friday, 6:00 to 6:50 p. m. Mr. McFall.

Municipal Corporations: Two semester credits. Monday and Wednesday, 5:10 to 6:50 p. m. Friday, 5:10 to 6:50 p. m. Mr. Schnebly.

Surety Ship: Two semester credits. Tuesdays to Saturday inclusive, 7:50 to 8:40 a. m. Mr. Schnebly.

BASKET BALL LETTERS WILL BE PRESENTED

President Collier Will Make Presentations After Supper Tomorrow Night

President Collier will present letters to the members of the Men's and Girls' basketball team who have earned them. Sweaters will be awarded the men if they come in time. The presentation will take place at the Victory Supper at the Law School on Tuesday night, May 6th.

The girls who will receive letters are Misses Catherine Gayle, Lasalia McCaffrey, Thelma Baines, Asenath Johnson, Helen Hosford, Anita Sanders, and Nona Pollner, manager.

The men are M. J. Suttill, David D. Wilson, Ross A. White, Eugene Underwood, Edward Lanche, C. R. Witt, J. G. Ladd, Homer Hoyt, and Charles R. Allen.

G. W. U. MAY ENTER SOUTH ATLANTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

Grant Keener, assistant manager of basketball, went to Baltimore Saturday to confer with men from the other colleges from the South Atlantic Association about the formation of the basketball league for next season. The inter-collegiate league has disbanded and the extended schedule which is planned will result in increased activities and the spreading of the name of G. W. U. outside of town.

SERVE SUPPER FOR BOND FUND

Second Supper Planned at Law School Tomorrow

Supper served from five to seven last Wednesday for the benefit of the G. W. U. Victory Bond netted the fund $4.084. Food which was left over was sold at the War Department and at the Medical School on Thursday, bringing the total profits up to sixty-six dollars. A rally on the back campus was held just before the supper. Major Ritchie, of the Motor Transport Corps, was the speaker.

W. U. C. in charge of sandwiches had such large expenses and such a small number of people patronized the supper that profits amounted to only 34 cents Wednesday evening. The remainder of the sandwiches were sold Thursday.

Chi Omega had candy for sale and made eleven dollars.

Phi Mu selling cake and ice-cream made $10.50.

Sigma Kappa made $7.75 on coffee sold the remainder at the Medical School Thursday.

Pi Beta Phi sold salad with profits of $12.50.

Miss McCutcheon on behalf of the Engineering School collected $4.80 on pies and cheese.

The supper was very well patronized. Each organization had prepared much more food than was sold. Even though the supper had been advertised and it was thought that it might inconvenience the night student the super were day students who stayed down for the purpose and the girls who had been preparing thing this was one thing that the night students would show some interest in, but even this failed to bring support.

An interesting feature of the supper Martha McGrew and Mr. Nickols. The latter won by a large majority. The amount pledged on the subscription sheets, about sixty dollars, is not nearly as great as it should be. Every one is urged to pledge at least fifty cents or a dollar. These pledges will be payable the middle of this week.

On Tuesday, May 6th, a supper will be served at the Law School and it is hoped will be well patronized. Salad, sandwiches, coffee and rolls ice-cream, cake and candy may be bought at reasonable prices.

WALLICK WINS DAVIS PRIZE

"The New America" Subject of the Winning Speech—Margaret Prentiss Awarded Second Prize—Lasalia McCaffrey Receives Third.

Earle W. Wallick of the Law School, won the first prize at the Davis prize speaking of the Arts and Science Department, Tuesday evening, April 29. Mr. Wallick's subject was "The New America."

Margaret J. Prentiss of Teacher's College was awarded the second prize, speaking on "The Essence of Humor."

The third prize was awarded to Lasalia McCaffrey, of Teacher's College for her oration, "Democracy and Our Schools."

Catherine Moran spoke on "The New Spirit of Ireland" and Lino J. Castillejo spoke on the "Battle of Manila Bay."

Music was furnished by the Girls' Glee Club, Chester La Follette played the violin and Miss Mingonne McCabe sang.

NOMINATIONS ARE APPROVED

Student Activities Tax Recommended—Letters to be Awarded to Basket Ball Team.

At the special meeting of the Student Council, held April 29 at the Law School, nominations were made for the Council for the year 1919-20, the student tax was recommended and the awarding of the basketball letters and sweaters was approved.

The persons nominated by the Council and approved by the chairman of the Faculty on student activities, Professor Croissant, were: Misses Elva Coughlin, Elizabeth Ernest, Katherine Symmonds, Ed. Hanson, Foster Hagan and Hugh Duffy of Columbian College; Misses Elizabeth Humphrey and Ruth Reeves of Teachers College; Messrs. R. D. Campbell, Raymond Harsch, Harry Strang and Louis Turoff of the Engineering College; Messrs. Cameron Burton (by petition), Proctor Page, Henry Ravenel, John Townsend and Eugene Underwood of the Law School; Messrs. Ed. Liefer of the Dental School and Messrs. Frank Myers and Freedland of the Medical School.

Two people nominated by the Council were not approved by the Faculty Committee on the grounds that their standing in their classes did not justify their becoming members of the Council.

Lasalia McCaffrey, chairman of the election committee, announced that the elections would run from May 10 until mid-night of May 17. Nominations may still be made by a petition bearing ten per cent of the names of the college concerned; these petitions must be in by Thursday May 8 by 12:15 to The Hatchet office at the Arts and Sciences Building. It is especially urged that the Dental School secure such a petition.

The Council recommended to the Faculty Committee on Student Activities that a tax of $5 be levied on all students of the University. This will enable each student to receive a Cherry Tree, the year book, a year's subscription to the Hatchet, and a season ticket to all athletic events. The money will be divided among these activities as follows:

This calculation is made on the basis of 18,000 students:

Cherry Tree, $3,500; Hatchet, $2,500; basketball, $600; Girls' basketball, $100; debating, $200. Total, $6,900, leaving $2,100 from the original $9,000. This $2,100 will be used for tennis, base ball, track, the publication of a Student Bible and anything else necessary.

It was voted that sweaters and letters should be awarded to Milo J. Sutliff, David D. Wilson, Ross A. White, Eugene Underwood, Edward Lansche, C. R. Witt, J. S. Ladd, Homer Hoyt and Charles R. Allen, the manager. These men were recommended to receive these awards by the coach, John Bixler, and by Manager Allen as having played in 50 per cent of the games including one of the Georgetown games.

Mr. Robert L. McCullough exercised the proxy for Mr. Samuel Katzman of the Dental School. Mr. Peter J. Donk, president of the Council instructed Mr. Allen to act as secretary in the absence of Miss Catherine Moran.

ENGINEERS AND DENTS WIN

Law and Columbian College Teams
Defeated in Poorly Played Games.

The Engineers were easy victors in the first game of the inter-departmental league series played on Potomac Park diamond on April 26. They batted the Columbian pitcher heavily and piled up 11 runs as against 6 for their opponents. The Columbian team was at the little end of the score during the entire game, and it was only the third inning that it looked as though they had a chance to catch up. The score stood 4 to 0 in favor of the Engineers. There was 1 out when Haynes got on base and Ottenberg knocked a three bagger bringing Haynes in. Two more men got on base and Ottenberg scored, but the next one was an easy out and the men died on the bases leaving the score 4 against 2. The game went on from here without excitement until Brown slid in home for another Columbian score. The few spectators who witnessed the game remained until the end in spite of the cold wind which swept across the park. The Columbian players went to the bat in the last of the ninth with a score of 11 to 3 against them. They managed to score 3 runs in this inning, bringing their score up to 6, but to make 9 runs, which they needed to win, was too much for them in one inning.

Following the game between the Engineers and Columbian College was a very loosely played game between the law school and the dental, in which the Dentals gained a 10 to 2 victory. The law school team attributes the large score made against them to the fact that they were without an experienced catcher, and as the Dents took advantage of the privilege of running on the last strike they were almost invariably able to beat the catcher's throw to first.

DO YOU KNOW

THESE TYPES?

Married, unmarried, going to be, hope to be or hopeless commingle in the classes of G. W. U. In the bright sunshine some of the going to be and hope to be appear in all their morning glory on the back campus or on the front steps.

In front of the Arts and Science building stand G. W. U. sex the "one over." The passer by snatches of their conversation about the "dance, base-ball and the queens." As Polonius says, "it is common for the younger sort to lack discretion."

"Among this gay throng stalks the tortoiséd eyed student like an owl that goes abroad in the daylight by mistake.

As the sun seemingly changes its position in the sky so at evening the types of students seem to change. Masses of Government clerks strain their eager eyes in order to obtain the intellectual emancipation that comes with a sheepskin just as the immigrant strains his eyes when he is coming into New York harbor, to grasp the freedom that he has been told will be his with his first glimpse of the statue of Liberty.

Society matrons, "culturines," wives, daughters, and sons of congressmen, senators, and diplomats, rub elbows with the relatives of the "butcher, baker and candle-stick-maker." Here and there are grey-haired men and women coming to the fountain of learning to quench a thirst that was denied or neglected in youth.

The faces of these students show that Pandora was wise to lift once more the lid of the box and let out hope, the life-guard of mortals. Hope is leading them on but where? Swiftly they come and swiftly they go, the eager earnest faces of Uncle Sam's children of a larger growth. Night comes and this crowd pours into the fully.

ORIGINAL SONGS FEATURE OF LAW SCHOOL BANQUET

Toast Law School Men in Service.

The sixth annual law school dinner was held Monday evening, April 28, in the banquet hall of the new Masonic Temple. The hall was artistically decorated with flags for the occasion and when filled to its capacity by the two hundred and seventy students and alumni, presented a brilliant scene.

The dinner began promptly at 6.50. It was well served by the ladies of Lebanon Lodge. The various songs were interested during the courses. A list of fourteen songs had been printed for the occasion, all of which with the exception of America, were written by members of the Law School.

The speakers on the occasion were as follows: Lieut. Col. Samuel T. Ansell, Dr. William Miller Collier, Thomas S. Hopkins, Esq., Louis M. Denit, Commander William H. Stayton and Dean William R. Vance, and in addition to the regular program, brief responses were made by Capt. Edward Stafford, Gen. William E. Harvey, Col. E. M. Morgan, and Capt. H. H. Semmes. A lively discussion with reference to military justice came out in the speeches of Gen. Ansell, Commander Stayton, and Col. Morgan.

After the various songs had been sung a vote was taken as to which were the most popular and prizes awarded to the authors. The winner of the first prize was Mr. Gilbert L. Hall, for a parody he had written to the tune "There is a Tavern in the Town," and the second prize was awarded to Prof. Van Vleck for a song he had written to the tune of "Smiles" entitled "Profs."

An enjoyable feature of the occasion was the reunion of the three classes of 1888, 1889 and 1890. Something over thirty of the group celebrating their centennial among them were the following: Prof. Cephane, Earl S. Brandenburg, Mr. Thomas S. Hopkins of the board of trustees, one of the speakers, graduated from the school fifty years ago and Mr. S. S. Worthington, who was also present, graduated from the Law School fifty-one years ago.

The dinner was known as the Victory dinner and was deemed to be in honor of the students and alumni who have been in Army and Navy service. At the close of the dinner a toast was drunk to the memory of the four Law School students who were killed in the service of their country, namely, Lieut. Wilmarth Brown, '17; Ensign Delozier Davidson, '18; Lieut. John Lyon, '16, and Lieut. Harris E. Petree, '19.

The last class in military law was held Wednesday, April 20. The time of the examination will be announced later.

LAW SCHOOL STUDENT RECEIVES WAR CROSS

Harry H. Semmes, '16, was commissioned a captain in the tank corps and was wounded in France, September 26, 1918, and awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and the bar to go with it for heroism. He was a member of the old troop A, D.C.N.G., in active service overseas since October 1, 1918.

In the Judge Advocate General's department in this city the Law School is represented by four officers: Col. Lewis W. Call, '88; Lieut.-Col. Charles C. Tucker, '89; Major Walter C. Cephane, '89, and Major A. A. Hoehling, '89.

Arthur Hellen, '11, one of the vice-presidents of the Law School Association, enlisted early in the war and received a commission in the ordnance department. He was in over seas service for several months. He is now back in the city and has resumed the practice of law.

William Strong, Jr., '13, was the first citizen of the District of Columbia to enlist in the war. He went to Europe with the Second Canadian Contingent during the first year of the war and in active service won his way up from private to lieutenant. He continued in active service until wounded home. He is now in a convalescent camp in Canada.

A great statesman once said,
"I'd rather be right than President"

The discriminating smoker says:—"I'd rather pay 20 Cents for a box of ten Murads, THE Turkish cigarette, than for a hundred ordinary cigarettes."

Why? Because Murads are made of 100% pure Turkish tobacco—and Turkish tobacco is the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes.
